

July 16, 2008

“The ASF's Project RESTART is a valuable response to the PWG's recommendation in March that a private sector committee develop best practices regarding disclosure to investors in securitized credits. I am very pleased that the industry is working with investors and a wide range of other important market participants to improve the securitization process. We look forward to seeing the comments from market participants and the additional steps the ASF has planned.”

--Christopher Cox, Chairman, Securities and Exchange Commission